Contractor is responsible for submitting the bid, and for handling any follow-up and/or negotiation that the federal buyer requires or initiates. Contractor also must request a debrief from the vendor, if not awarded the opportunity, as well as protest the bid award, if so inclined. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results, and USCR does not and cannot guarantee that Contractor (or your company) will win any contracts on which it submits a proposal. Contractor must review all pricing aspects of your bid. Contractor is 100% responsible for everything in its bid.

NOTE: You must maintain an active APP user license with USFCR to receive SAM registration assistance, renewals and updates by USFCR, regardless of whether such SAM assistance is free or at an additional charge. Services are considered rendered at the earlier of 48 hours after the sale, start of SAM assistance or successful login of APP.

By providing the information, US Federal Contractor Registration will begin the contract assistance process. All information supplied will be and is required to be verified.
21. Applicant must agree to not attack/criticize USFCR and any of its employees, associates or partners publicly (on public forums, blogs, social networks, etc.) at any time during or subsequent to the period we provide services or assistance to you.
